Dear USPTC Member,

We at US-Polish Trade Council ("USPTC") wish you and your loved ones every happiness on this special day and always.

Happy Easter.

POLAND IS IN THE GAME(S)!

Poland Day 2013 took place on March 25th in the Crown Room of the historic Fairmont Hotel on Nob Hill in San Francisco. What a venue, what a view of the City!

We were honored to welcome our prominent Guests, the Ambassador of the Republic of Poland to the United States, Dr. Ryszard Schnepf, the Consul General of Poland for the Western U.S., Ms. Joanna Kozińska-Frybes, Director of San Francisco Mayor's Office of International Trade and Commerce, Mr. Mark Chandler, the Chief of the Trade Department at the Polish Embassy in Washington DC, Dr. Pawel Pietrasienski, and Deputy President of Katowice, Poland, Mr. Marcin Krupa.

This year's discussion panels focused on ideas and new technologies associated with the computer game industry as well as investment in start-ups. The topics spurred a lively discussion not only among the panelists but also, to a great extent, among all the participants in the main conference room and in the foyer. We were happy to see the intense networking and inspiring discussions that arose during the breaks and after the last session. USPTC wishes to extend many thanks to the moderators and speakers for sharing their knowledge and experience.

USPTC's main goal - to connect Poland- and US-based companies, institutions and professionals, and to create an inspiring venue leading to future contacts and relations was fully achieved. Once again, USPTC has proved that POLAND IS IN THE GAME!

We would like to thank our sponsors and patrons for their kind contribution and support.

This year's edition of the Poland Day was organized under the patronage of the Consulate General of the Republic of Poland in Los Angeles, Trade and Investment Section of the Embassy of Poland in Washington, DC and Polish Information and Foreign Investment Agency. The Gold Sponsor of the event was City Hall Katowice, Poland.

We proudly welcomed the letter of support for Poland Day from Minister Olgierd R. Dziekonski, Secretary of State, Cabinet of the President of the Republic of Poland. The letter can be viewed in the enclosed Poland Day brochure.
